Thinking of Teaching as a future career?

Book onto our School Direct Taster Event

Tuesday 13th
March 2018

To find out more about teaching and what it is like to work with students,
you are invited
to attend a taster
morning planned and delivered by Whitley Bay High School.

As part of the morning you will develop your understanding of what makes learning exciting and effective with one of our lead trainers; watch a lesson in our award winning observation gallery, and have an opportunity to discuss your potential career in teaching and the routes available.

Whitley Bay Teaching School Alliance works closely with both Newcastle and Northumbria Universities to provide exceptional support for teachers beginning their careers through the School Direct Programme.

We have a national reputation for quality Teaching & Learning and the innovative, enjoyable and rigorous training we offer all our staff.
