

Why Train With Us?

Whitley Bay High School is the lead school in a Cohort 1 Teaching School Alliance (TSA). We were awarded the status in July 2011 - one of the first 56 secondary schools nationally - in recognition of the outstanding teaching, learning and training in the school.

Within our alliance, we believe our mission is to provide exciting, timely, relevant and supportive training for teachers, support staff and leaders throughout their careers so that they in turn inspire their students with a lifelong love of learning.

If you train with us, you will have three teaching placements in two of our partnership schools, which are conveniently located across the North Tyneside and Northumberland area. These placements will provide you a unique opportunity to experience a diverse and varied range of teaching and learning opportunities, allowing you to be immersed in school life from the outset. Highly experienced and inspirational practitioners will design a bespoke training programme which will allow you to evolve into an outstanding and reflective teacher.

To help support you through your personalised training programme you will also be allocated experienced mentors who will oversee and monitor your progress and development. They will help introduce you to school life, give you support with lesson planning and preparation, look at effective classroom practices with you and they will have regular weekly meetings to reflect on your teaching.
